For Immediate Release - March 11, 2015

SALEM POLICE RESPOND TO PEDESTRIAN VEHICLE ACCIDENT ON EAST MAIN

On Wednesday, March 11, at approximately 12:45 p.m., the Salem Police Department responded to the 1400 block of East Main Street in reference to a pedestrian, who reportedly had been struck by a motorist.

Police determined that a 62-year-old male was attempting to cross the street from the Goodwill parking lot to Lakeside Plaza when he was struck by a female, who was driving a 2005 Chevrolet Impala. The pedestrian was transported to Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital with injuries that did not appear to be life threatening.

Salem Police determined that the man was not using the crosswalk when he was hit. No charges have been placed against the driver of the vehicle at this time, but the incident remains under investigation.
